

The Texas Ranger Lounge © at The Prairie by Rachel Ashwell

March 2012 – One of my first Famous Barns tours of the new year was a tour called “The Ima Hogg Barns.”

Ms. Hogg was a famous Texas oil heiress and philanthroper and her historic site a few miles from Round Top – Winedale – is home to one of the oldest barns in the state and the University of Texas’ Summer Shakespeare at Winedale Theatre Barn.

After I’d organized the tour and purchased tickets to the International Guitar Festival at Round Top’s Festival Hall ... where to stay? It was close enough to be a day trip, but I wanted to relax after the tour and concert.

I found The Prairie by Rachel Ashwell, in Round Top. The creator of shabby chic, with retail locations in London, New York, Santa Monica ... and Round Top? Actually, it makes perfect sense.

What a place! And, since many of you want the perfect “center of attention” barn on your ranch, for cabinettes to surround ... welcome to the Texas Ranger Lounge!

It’s 52’ x 60’ with a 12’x50’ Private Bedroom Loft (for the Queen). We’ve also included a private consultation and design scheme from Rachel’s Texas Designer and an accessory and furniture package valued at $ 10,000.

Available in Post Frame and Post & Beam Construction.

See the original Ranger Lounge and Rachel Ashwell’s fourth retail location.
